

Project Editor

KBFT is accepting bids from Independent Contractors to produce the following Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage projects from August 15, 2018 8am until June 30th, 2019 at 4:30pm.
Please, place your bid before November 9, 2018.

Contact Charles Wagner, Legacy Project Coordinator for more information and details at 218.757.0045 or via email at Charles.Wagner@boisforte-nsn.gov

Project Title and Short Description	Start-End Dates	Deliverables	Total Length	Your bid here
Native Fest Music Series - This series will feature Native American Performance Events for local and regional public to enjoy that will provide public exposure for the Artists.	8/15/18 - 6/30/19	4 (5 minute) Individual Recordings of event audio and Musician Interviews.	A total of 20 minutes broken down to 4 (5 minute) interview segments.	Your bid here
Native Fest Art Series - This series will feature Native American Artist events for the local and regional public to enjoy that will provide exposure for the Artist to feature their work.	8/15/18 - 6/30/19	2 (5 minute) Individual Recordings of event audio and Artist Interviews.	A total of 10 minutes broken down to 2 (5 minute) interview segments.	Your bid here
Native Fest Writing Series - This series will feature Native American writers for the local and regional public to enjoy and will provide exposure for the writers and their work.	8/15/18 - 6/30/19	2 (5 minute) Individual Recordings of event audio and Author Interviews.	A total of 10 minutes broken down to 2 (5 minute) interview segments.	Your bid here
The History Of The Bois Forte Ojibwe (Book) - Will be a "work in progress" for the fiscal year - will be released before the June 30th deadline. The book will be a reference document for anyone researching the history, statistics, and facts about the Bois Forte Nation and Reservation Territories of Nett Lake, Lake Vermilion, Pelican Lake, Johnson Lake, and Deer Creek in Minnesota.	8/15/18 - 6/30/19	2 (5 minute) segments. On making of the book and promotion.	10 minutes worth of interviews for a total of 2 (5 minute) interview segments	Your bid here

Birchbark Canoe Building - Will give participants a hands-on-learning on how to build traditional Ojibwe birch bark canoes.	8/15/18 - 6/30/19	1 (5 minute) interview with canoe builder and participants.	1, 5 minute segment.	Your bid here
Anishinaabemoen Language Immersion Camps - Will result in 3, Ojibwe Language Camps throughout the year where participants will have the opportunity to learn the Ojibwe Language and Culture as well as various Native American Crafts and teachings.	8/15/18 - 6/30/19	3 (5 minute) segments of event audio and interviews with attendees.	15 minutes broken into 3 segments.	Your bid here
Great State Artist Contest - This will be an open to all KBFT listeners artist contest. The contest itself will be of a theme chosen by the station (every 3 months for a total of 4 rounds). The artist may submit only one article of work and utilize any medium available.	8/15/18 - 6/30/19	4 (5 minute) segments of art viewers, artists and contest judge.	20 minutes broken into 4 segments.	Your bid here

Please submit your resume, credentials, portfolio/samples of your work along with your bid(s) to:

KBFT 89.9FM Bois Forte Tribal Community Radio
Attention: Chaz Wagner, Legacy ACHF Coordinator
13090 Westley Drive
Nett Lake, MN 55772

Office: 218.757.3185
Studio: 218.757.0045
Fax: 218.757.3126
Charles.Wagner@boisforte-nsn.gov